

FLORIDA HUMANITIES

JOIN OUR SPEAKERS' DIRECTORY!

Florida Humanities' speakers offer thought-provoking, engaging, and compelling talks on a variety of humanities-centered topics for our Florida Talks partners and Community Project Grants. Our new roster will begin presenting across the state in September 2022. Applications due Jan. 19, 2022!

- One to three presentations
- Host virtually and in-person
- Partner with humanities-focused nonprofits across the state
- Training and Direct Payment through Florida Humanities

Scan to Learn More!

Questions?

Contact April Myerscough
Public Programs Coordinator
amyerscough@flahum.org

IMPACT YOUR COMMUNITY THROUGH A COMMUNITY PROJECT GRANT

Florida Humanities' Community Project Grants (up to $10,000) are awarded to nonprofit organizations and public institutions to support public programming that strengthens communities and cultures, sparks thoughtful dialogue, and reflects on the human experience across the Sunshine State.

2022 Deadlines:

- January 19, 2022 (noon)
- April 13, 2022 (noon)
- July 20, 2022 (noon)
- October 12, 2022 (noon)

Scan to Learn More!

Questions?

Contact Lindsey Morrison
Grants Director
lmorrison@flahum.org

Our Mission:

To preserve, promote and share the history, literature, culture and personal stories that offer Floridians a better understanding of themselves, their communities and their state.

Learn more at www.FloridaHumanities.org