

embroidery

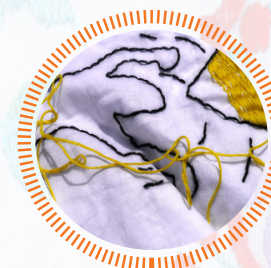

FOR PEACE & MEMORY

ACTIVISM through ARTMAKING.

JOIN US IN PROMOTING DIVERSITY,
INTERSECTIONALITY, AND HUMAN RIGHTS ON CAMPUS.

Experience with embroidery is not required to participate. All are welcome. Embroidery can be done in any language. Materials will be provided.

Peace Plaza
(rain location: building 15/1105)
Oct. 3 - Oct. 6
9AM - 5PM
Lessons and group embroidery.
Any classes during this time can participate as well.

Ogier Gardens
Oct. 7
9AM - 4PM
Mediation with
Dr. Sarah Mattice,
Mexican paper cutting workshop, and provided lunch. All embroidered works will be displayed.

DETAILS

Sponsored by the Hicks Honors College; Department of Languages, Literatures, and Cultures; Department of Philosophy and Religious Studies; Office of Interdisciplinary programs; UNF Interfaith Center; and Ogier Gardens.

For additional information, please contact
Dr. Constanza López (constanza.lopez@unf.edu)
www.embroidery.unfdhi.org