About DHKulture and FilmmakersNola D. - Creator. Director & Coproducer*

Nola D is the creator, director, and coproducer of Diasporans Hidden Kulture film. DHKulture is a series of films in which Nola D travels around America to highlight African American Kulture. Nola D created this project to educate the world about African Americans' contributions to America's Kulture. Nola D is the co-founder of the nonprofit film production company Diaspora Whispers. Dwhispers is a Kultural film production company that provides creative support for multicultural films, kultural activities, and film workshops for children in the community.

"I created DHkulture because of my passion for researching hidden African American Kulture. On my research journey, I realized that many people wanted to learn more about what African-Americans' have contributed to the Kulture of America, so I began filming content that would educate and celebrate those African Americans' contributions. This journey has educated me on how much African-Americans' have contributed to the Kulture of America." - Nola D.

Sage Love - Head of Productions/Co-Producer

As the coproducer and head of productions of the Diasporans Hidden Kulture documentary, Sage Love aims to open up a new lane within cinema that highlights African Americans' contributions to the Kulture of America. Love is the co-founder of the nonprofit film production company Diaspora Whispers. Dwhispers is a Kultural film production company that provides creative support for multicultural films, kultural activities, and film workshops for children in the community.
